

Translation and legalization agency E-LINGUA is a professional translation agency.
We translate personal and company documents in more than 30 languages.

Our translators are experienced professionals that have proven professional skills. They all specialize in different fields of translation, which allows us to provide quality translations in a wide spectrum of themes and fields.

We have a rich experience in the translation of:

standard documents of physical persons (birth certificates, marriage certificates, marital status certificates, certificates of identity of names, diplomas, bank certificates, certificates from the NRA, certificates from the Traffic Police, powers of attorney, notary deeds, etc.); company documents (court registration decisions, certificates for registration or change of circumstances, incorporation agreements, articles of incorporation, powers of attorney, declarations, accounting balances, audit reports, business plans, agreements, business correspondence, presentations, catalogues, brochures, web pages, etc); any other commercial documents, open competition documentation under the Public Orders Act, customs and transport documents, etc.

We have professional translators specialized in the following fields:

law, trade, finance, banking, insurance, medicine, pharmaceuticals, metallurgy, mining, machine building, automotive industry, electrical engineering, environment preservation, IT technologies, advertising, etc.

We provide certification services with all ministries and with the Consular Department of the Ministry of External Affairs of the Republic of Bulgaria.

The company has an agreement with the Consular Department of the Ministry of the External Affairs of the Republic of Bulgaria, which gives us the opportunity to perform official translations and legalizations of documents, issued in Bulgaria or abroad.

We are competent, reliable, and correct. We work quickly and professionally.
We believe that after you find us once, you will keep coming back to us!
